Our Ethos

At Newbattle Abbey College, we are proud of our rich history and the pivotal role we play in making education accessible. We empower learners by fostering a strong sense of belonging, building resilience, and equipping them with essential skills for further learning, life, and work. Whether creating pathways onto the next phase of learning or opening doors to new career opportunities, Newbattle provides a nurturing environment where individuals can thrive and fully achieve their potential. Every event hosted at the college helps preserve this historic institution and ensures it continues to provide a nurturing learning environment for individuals of all ages - from school leavers to adult returners.

Located in the scenic heart of Midlothian Newbattle Abbey College offers an exceptional selection of venue spaces, perfect for conferences, meetings, training workshops, and unique events.

Set within 125 acres of woodland, our stunning grounds can be incorporated into your event or used as natural break out space. Explore our venue spaces below.

The Drawing Room

This majestic room was remodelled in the late 19th century by David Bryce. The stunning ceiling is the work of famous Scottish interior designer Thomas Bonnar.

The Edwin Muir Room

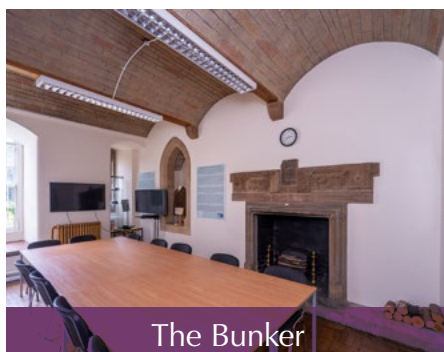

Named after Orcadian Poet Edwin Muir, who was the college warden between 1950 and 1955. The highly detailed ceiling is of Flemish design of the late 16th and early 17th century.

The perfect space for smaller events

For smaller events or meetings, we also offer a range of intimate venue spaces. Perfect for workshops, brainstorming sessions, or private gatherings.
